UNFINISHED BUSINESS

2. Plein Air Art Event

Robert Morrissey updated the Committee on the progress of the event. The event location, Tappmeyer Homestead, has gallery rails to hang artwork with, which will allow approximately 30 artists to participate with up to 3 paintings each. Nan Kulkarni stated that artists typically pick only one of their artworks to be judged. The committee agreed there would be no age limitations for the event. Robert Morrissey stated that Kodner Galleries has generously agreed to sponsor second place ($500). Nan Kulkarni stated she would approach a few businesses for first place sponsorship. The committee discussed getting a custom stamp made for the event.

The committee discussed the entry fee for the event, and a majority of members were in favor of a $40 advance registration fee and a $50 day-off registration fee.

3. Sculpture on the Move 2024 Update

Melissa Bradford stated that the committee's first choice was no longer available, and so the committee's next available choice was secured. The sculpture is titled "Beginnings" by Ben Pierce and will be installed in May outside the Dielmann Recreation Complex. Melissa stated she would notify the committee of the anticipated installation date once it is scheduled.
