2. Update from Brittany Sievers, Recreation Supervisor

Recreation Supervisor Brittany Sievers provided an update on recreation programming. The photo contest deadline is July 31. The July concert in Millennium Park had a free art class (Canvas for Kids) and a free music class (Mini Music STL) for kids. These classes are also being held at the Dielmann Recreation Complex on an ongoing basis for a fee. There will be a sewing workshop in September.

Brittany also stated that staff have received a lot of positive feedback on the new sculpture installed outside the Dielmann Recreation Complex. The sculpture is called Low-Poly Heart No. 4 Red by m.l.duffy.

3. Free Little Art Gallery

The Committee agreed that the new design painted by Lisa Hilton looks terrific. Lisa Hilton stated that she made the interior shelves wider as well. Robert Morrissey encouraged the members to continue thinking of ways to enhance and promote the Free Little Art Gallery. Melissa Bradford stated that it can be promoted in a future newsletter as well.

4. Plein Air Art Event 2026

Melissa Bradford provided a status update on the event. Sixteen artists have signed up at this point, and the event has been promoted through the newsletter and social media. Pier Alsup suggested brainstorming additional outreach ideas. Lisa Hilton volunteered to help promote the event through her channels. Robert Morrissey suggested giving copies of the flyer to each sponsor, plus one flyer in an acrylic display sign.

Melissa stated that the city would provide an outdoor tent for the evening of the reception. The committee discussed the logistics of the event:

- Voting for the People's Choice Award can be done under the tent.
- All sponsors will be listed on the People's Choice Award ballot slips.
- People's Choice Award rules and eligibility will be listed on the back of the ballot slips.
- Awards can be presented outside the house, from the stairs and facing the park.
- There will be an announcement from the stage before the concert begins at 6:00 p.m.
- There will be an announcement for the People's Choice Award during intermission at approximately 6:50 p.m.
