Meeting Room 2

James Berry was able to speak with Powder Valley and Forest Relief. Each rely on volunteers to staff these kind of events and they would need to see if anyone is available. Regardless, they can provide Jim a packet of information to set on a table to share at Arbor Day and Jim could be present at the table. A table is required.

Mara Berry spoke with Forest Relief, who will donate 10 trees for prizes. Mara also sent out an invitation to Jason Valvero, Director of Recreation to have the Parks and Historic Preservation committee participate with a table detailing Park's Master Plan and other information. Jason replied he would be interested in have a table present during the event. Table is needed.

Other table assignments were handed out as follows:

Dorothy - hand out the seedlings to visitors

Claire - promotion and information about the Beautification Contest

Rachel Eilbott - handing out the passports to the children - passports can be stamped or use stickers to mark

Mara & Janet - face painting in gazebo

Claire Chosid indicated she would call Jim Heines to ask about the city purchasing a three gallon dogwood tree to plant for Arbor Day.

Mara asked Jim Graham if he would be the MC for the event and Jim agreed.

Janet and Mara will work on the letters to send to schools. Additions to our list were added such as Delmar Gardens of Creve Coeur and Sheridan at Creve Coeur.

Fran Cantor asked if follow-up phone calls were going to be made to these schools. Mara asked the committee if anyone was interested in volunteering to do this. No one volunteered at this time.

B. Beautification Contest

The Committee discussed when the judging should take place and the deadline for entries. Claire mentioned the best time to judge and past judging's had occurred the second week in June. By a show of hands, the date most people could participate was Wednesday, June 15, 2022. The deadline to enter will be May 31, 2022.

5. New Business

A. Temp Use of Goats

Janet Rueschhoff explained to the committee that the Council would be interested in hearing the opinion of the HEB Committee regarding residents use of goats on a temporary basis to be used to rid invasive plants. This item was tabled by Mara Berry to allow members the opportunity to research this topic further. It will be on next months agenda.

6. Comments from the Public

No members of the public were present for comments.

7. Business from Members
